

Investigations against MAN Group companies brought to an end with administrative orders imposing fines

Munich, December 10, 2009

The investigations of suspected corruption against various MAN Group companies have been concluded

MAN SE
Ungererstr. 69
80805 Munich

The public prosecution authorities at Munich District Court I imposed a fine of €75.3 million on MAN Nutzfahrzeuge AG in their notice of decision today. Munich District Court I also ruled a fine of €75.3 million on MAN Turbo AG today. Both the companies concerned have acquiesced in the decisions. This brings to an end the investigations against the companies of the MAN Group on suspicion of imputed corruption between 2002 to 2009. This does not affect the preliminary investigations against individuals.

Head of Corporate Communications
Andreas Lampersbach

Press Officer
Dominique Nadelhofer
Stefan Straub

The agreement to fines and conclusion of the investigations became possible because the Executive Board and Supervisory Board took extensive measures to clarify the matter within the company, working closely with the public prosecution authorities.

Phone: +49. 89. 36098-111
presse@man.eu
www.man.eu