

Borussia Dortmund receives new MAN fan truck

Munich, November 3, 2011

Reigning German soccer champions Borussia Dortmund (BVB) will soon be on the road with a new MAN fan truck. Now it is not just the players that will be travelling MAN, but the scarves and shirts too — they will be transported to all games in the new MAN fan vehicle and sold to fellow travelling BVB fans from the truck. The semitrailer tractor has been specially adapted by the Munich Dax-30 Group to the club's requirements and designed in the club's colors. Borussia Dortmund's Bundesliga team has been traveling to its games in an exclusive MAN coach for around ten years.

Commenting on the truck, Matthias Zerber, Director of BVB Merchandising GmbH, said: "It is fitting that both the pros and the merchandising items for our fans are transported by MAN. We are delighted to have MAN on board as a partner and to see it strengthen its support for Borussia Dortmund alongside the existing team coach."

Andreas Lampersbach, Head of MAN SE's Corporate Communications, added: "Our partnership with Borussia Dortmund is going very well for us. Following the new team coach and the Champion Mobile, the fan shop on wheels is the third customized vehicle that our engineers have put on the road for BVB."

The mobile fan shop houses an extensive collection of fan items. It will be used at both home and away games as well as other Borussia Dortmund events.
